

Attention Cadet Officers!

The time has come for 2009 Regional Cadet Leadership School to take place! This five day course will give you the knowledge and experience to become one of the best cadet officers in your wing. You will learn a variety of the quintessential skills and traits to be an effective cadet officer: teamwork, leadership, character and ethics, and effective communication are just a few of the planned areas of study for this advanced leadership course. In addition, you will be able to learn from and establish relationships with cadet leaders from the entire region. Also, upon successful completion of this course, you will be awarded credit for RCLS which is a pre-requisite for the Ira C. Eaker Award. Do not let this opportunity pass you by!

WHAT: Rocky Mountain Region RCLS

WHEN: 26 Dec 09 - 31 Dec 09

WHERE: Peterson AFB, Colorado Springs, CO

PRE-REQUISITES: At a minimum, applicants are asked to have received their General Billy Mitchell Award and be 16 years of age before the start of this activity. However, exceptions can be made on an individual basis.

Region Cadet Leadership School's are a very academically and mentally challenging leadership symposium. Those applicants wishing to participate in this event should possess a great deal of confidence and maturity.

More information and specific details will be forthcoming pending the receiving of individual applications.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Those wishing to submit an application to this school should email a cover letter and resume, as well as a memorandum stating why they wish to attend and what they hope to learn from this course to the Deputy Director Captain Douglas Crawford at dcrawford@spatz.org.

Make sure to get your application in fast! Space is limited and registration will close once all slots are filled.

Thank you for your time, we look forward to learning with you at this premiere leadership activity!
